

NOTS: Naga Online Tailoring Services

---

Terms and Conditions

[Last Update: November 3, 2017]

1. The Tailors that will subscribe to this service must be first evaluated by the Administrators of this app and has an establishment at least one(1) branch inside Naga City . To contact the admins, email them at notes@gmail.com
2. The Administrator has the privilege to monitor and view all the information entered by the Tailor, including the information of the store, products and transactions.
3. Administrators can modify any entry and information made by the Tailor and Customer depending on the circumstances that are carefully examined and other issues that needs data modification to be solved.
4. Any information entered in the app is defined by the users out of their free will. Administrators and the developers will not be held responsible for the false information that are entered by the users.
5. The app doesn't cover internal negotiations like discount, pick-up date and time, and other things that can be agreed by two parties through several exchange of conversation. Though, both parties can communicate through the contact number they entered in their respective profile. Any misunderstanding and failed negotiation are not the responsibility of the Administrators or the app's developers.
6. This app does not cover product and money delivery. The said services will be done outside the system depending on the negotiation of both parties involved.
7. Errors may occur when the browser is not compatible with the app or the browser itself is not updated. Aside from the said circumstances, errors outside the system will be held responsible by the user.
8. Any illegal act that results from the misuse of this app will be immediately reported to the officials and punishments will be done according to deed and the stakeholders involved.
9. Developers can update this app with bug fixes and other modifications after announcing a notice. Reports will be documented on each update.
10. Both administrators and developers can modify this app Terms and Conditions at any desired date and time.